CONSIGNOR (COMPANY) _____ CONTACT NAME AND EMAIL _____

CONSIGNED MATERIAL (ATTACH THE INVENTORY LIST — PART NUMBERS, SERIALS, CONDITION, DOCUMENTATION) _____

TERMS

1. Ownership: consigned material remains the property of the Consignor until sold by the Consignee; title passes directly from Consignor to the buyer on sale. The Consignee holds the material as bailee only.
2. Sale efforts: the Consignee will market the material through its channels at prices agreed in the attached list (or as later agreed in writing). The Consignee may not sell below the agreed floor price without written consent.
3. Commission and payment: on each sale the Consignee retains a commission of _____% of the sale price and remits the balance to the Consignor within 10 business days of receiving cleared payment from the buyer.
4. Documentation: the Consignor warrants that each unit is supplied with the release and traceability documents stated in the inventory list, and that no unit is incident-related or from a military/government source.
5. Storage and insurance: the Consignee will store the material with reasonable care; risk of loss remains with the Consignor unless caused by the Consignee's negligence. Insurance, if any, is the Consignor's responsibility.
6. Term and return: this agreement runs for _____ months and then continues month-to-month; either party may terminate on 30 days' written notice, and unsold material will be made available for collection at the Consignor's cost within 15 days of termination.
7. Costs: freight to and from the Consignee's facility is for the Consignor's account unless agreed otherwise.
8. Law: Florida law governs; exclusive venue is Pinellas County, Florida / the Middle District of Florida; the prevailing party in any dispute recovers its attorneys' fees. The Part Hunter LLC Policies & Procedures apply to all sales made under this agreement.
